WHERE CAN I GET A JOB?

IS THERE STUDENT EMPLOYMENT?
BYU Employs thousands of students visit BYU's website, studentjobs.byu.edu to view and apply for student positions. You can even sign up to receive a weekly email of available jobs!

01
Get Hired

TIPS FOR GETTING A JOB

1/ Ask yourself what type of job you want?
2/ Consider how many hours of work can you work each week?
3/ Group your class schedule so you have better availability
4/ Draw up a RESUME
5/ Prepare the proper DOCUMENTS
6/ Take BYU’s IT classes to improve your skill set
7/ Pay extra attention to application directions
8/ Prepare for the JOB INTERVIEW

For more tips and FAQ's on jobs click HERE

02
Credits

US CITIZEN/RESIDENT STUDENTS

Undergraduate students must be enrolled in at least 6.0 day-continuing credit hours during Fall and Winter semesters.

Graduate students must carry at least 2.0 day-continuing credit hours during Fall and Winter semesters.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Undergraduate students must be enrolled in at least 12.0 day-continuing credit hours per semester.

Click HERE for more information.

03
Hours

US CITIZEN/RESIDENT STUDENTS

Are allowed to work up to 20 hours per week during Fall and Winter Semesters.

Undergraduate students may work up to 40 hours per week during Spring and Summer terms, depending on department need.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Are allowed to work over 20 hours per week ONLY during their annual vacation period (to be determined by the International Services Office) and during school holidays and breaks.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

2024 WSC
801-422-3561
STUDENTJOBS.BYU.EDU

BYU has a large variety of jobs available, and BYU is the No. 1 American university to work at, according to a survey published by The Huffington Post and Forbes magazine.

Click HERE to see how BYU ranks when matched up to other universities.