ARE YOU PREPARED FOR THE END OF THE TERM?
The end of the term is usually one of the most stressful times of the year. You may feel overwhelmed with projects, papers, homework, and exam prep. We have some tips to help keep stress at a minimum.

01 Wrapping It All Up
FINISHING UP CLASSES:

Check Learning Suite-
Make sure all assignments are accounted for.

Meet With Your TA/Professor-
It’s never too late to ask!

Start-
Just do it! Start those final projects and papers now!

02 Finals Week Countdown
5, 4, 3, 2, 1... CELEBRATE!

5- Finals Week Schedule
Find out if your final is scheduled or distributed at the testing center and decide when you are going to take your test (remember to account for lines!).

4- Use Your Resources
Attend reviews to help yourself out. Most reviews are typically held during exam preparation days.

3- Laugh With A Friend
Get out for a while and spend time with friends. Seriously, it helps.

1- You Did It!

03 Selling Textbooks
GET BACK SOME MONEY

Now that classes are ending, get back some of the money you spent on textbooks.

Where can I sell them?
- BYU Store
- BYU Book Exchange (a free service that allows you to sell your books to other students)
- Other online retailers

Visit byubookstore.com to start selling your books back and making some money.
