The Honor Code

YOUR COMMITMENT TO:

1 - Be academically honest (don’t plagiarize, fabricate, cheat, etc.)
2 - Respect others
3 - Live a chaste and virtuous life
4 - Observe the Dress and Grooming Standards

It’s actually quite similar to the For the Strength of Youth pamphlet. Click HERE to view the Entire Honor Code statement.

HOW DO I LIVE HONOR CODE?

BYU exists to provide an educational experience in an atmosphere driven by the teachings of the LDS church. All students are expected to maintain a code of conduct consistent with those teachings.

HOW SHOULD I PRESENT MYSELF AT BYU?

Dress & Grooming Standards

MEN
- No beards, sideburns past the ear lobes, or extreme haircuts
- No earrings / body piercings
- No sleeveless, revealing, or form fitting clothing
- Hair should be trimmed above the collar, leaving the ears uncovered

WOMEN
- No sleeveless, strapless, backless, revealing, form fitting clothing
- Only one piercing per ear and no body piercing
- Dresses, skirts, and shorts must be knee length or longer; there should be no slits above the knee
- Hairstyles should avoid extremes in style and color

WHAT IS HONOR CODE?

The Honor Code

CAN MEMBERS OF THE OPPOSITE SEX BE IN MY APARTMENT?

Members of the opposite sex are not allowed in the bedroom areas of any dorm or apartment. They are, however, allowed to be in living rooms and kitchens during visiting hours.

ECCLESIASTICAL ENDORSEMENT

Every student must complete an ecclesiastical endorsement, which states your willingness to live the Honor Code, once a year. Your endorsement needs to be renewed each spring.

03

Visiting Hours

For an article about the history of the Honor Code click HERE.