On-Campus Housing

First-year students are not required to live on campus, but it is highly recommended. Studies have shown that students who live in on-campus housing do better their first year. Besides being with their peers, living on campus allows students to receive support from Residence Life staff and participate in a lot of fun activities. Become part of the on-campus citizens!

Visit housing.byu.edu for more information.

Heritage Halls / $350 – $424
+ Apartment style living with common areas
+ Newest housing on campus
+ No on-site parking available

Helaman Halls / $342 – $470
+ Dorm style living
+ All-you-can-eat dining
+ Meal plan required

Wyview Park / $239 – $310
+ Traditional apartment living
+ Farthest from central part of campus, but there is a shuttle
+ Must be 19 years old prior to January 1, 2017

Off-Campus Housing

READY TO MOVE TO BYU?
Wondering about housing at BYU? The Office of First-Year Experience has a few ideas for you!

WHAT ARE SOME OPTIONS FOR ON-CAMPUS HOUSING?

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING NOT FOR YOU?

When searching for off-campus living, please keep the following guidelines in mind:

+ BYU APPROVED
Off-campus housing for single students must be approved. See housing.byu.edu for requirements.

+ HOUSING WAIVER
You can live with your family, but you must submit an Off-Campus Housing Waiver by the add/drop deadline (6 days after class starts).

On-campus housing is divided into 10 equal payments, with the first payment due on July 1.